

MID TERM STRATEGIC PLAN EXTERNAL EVALUATION

(RFP/SP/002/2025)

CONSULTANCY ADVERT

CHAK is a national faith-based organization of the Protestant Churches, health institutions and programs from all counties of Kenya providing quality health care since 1946 through building of health systems, partnerships, and community empowerment. CHAK programmes are guided by a six-year strategic plan which is implemented through two phases of three-year programmes. The current strategic plan runs from 2023 to 2028.

CHAK is seeking to engage a consultant/consultancy firm to carry out the mid-term evaluation of implementation of the Strategic Plan 2023-2028 and the three-year programme 2023-2025 to ascertain achievements (results/output/outcome/impact) and assess the effectiveness, efficiency and relevance and provide findings, conclusions and recommendations for action in the second half- period of the strategic plan.

The evaluation should be completed by July 20, 2025, to inform prioritization of activities in the second phase of the strategic plan.

The evaluation process should include an entry meeting, inception report, literature review, key informant interviews and workshop with CHAK member health facilities, Board and staff and an evaluation report. The TOR for the consultancy can be accessed from CHAK Secretariat by contacting procurement@chak.or.ke or from CHAK website: www.chak.or.ke.

Requirements.

- The consultant/consultancy firm should have good knowledge of the health sector in Kenya
- At least three years' consulting experience in the evaluation of strategic plans and/or donor funded projects
- Knowledge of the prevailing health sector delivery system, health financing reforms, regulatory and policy environment and national health priorities
- Good listening, documentation and analytical skills
- Competence in strategy, research, public health and health systems

Interested consultants/consultancy firms should submit their expression of interest, accompanied by capacity statement and consultancy proposal responding to the TOR that includes methodology, costing, team composition, referees and delivery timelines clearly marked:
